20% Tax on Health Savings Account distributions

Premature distributions from a Health Savings Account are subject to an additional 20% tax. A distribution is considered premature if it was paid before you reached age 65. The 20% tax is based on the taxable portion of the distribution. Exceptions may apply as indicated in Publication 969, Health Savings Accounts and Other Tax-Favored Health Plans. If the distribution(s) shown on this notice are exempt from the additional tax, please send us a signed explanation.

Child Tax Credit

The allowable amount of the Child Tax Credit is based on filing status, the number of qualifying child(ren), modified adjusted gross income and tax. The credit is adjusted when modified adjusted gross income changes. The credit cannot be more than the tax.

If you filed and claimed credits for mortgage interest, residential energy credit and/or District of Columbia first-time homebuyer with your original tax return, please provide us with recomputed worksheets from Publication 972, Child Tax Credit. In order to apply any unused credits from these sources, send us the recomputed forms. If you have already applied these unused credits to any other tax year(s), you need to file a Form 1040X, Amended U.S. Individual Tax Return for the other year(s) with the appropriate Internal Revenue Service Center. If the tax return for the affected period has not yet been filed, confirm with a signed statement that your records have been corrected.

Refigured tax based on Schedule D computation

We refigured your tax using the Schedule D tax computation.

Schedule A general sales tax deduction

Based on our proposed changes to your income, you may be entitled to claim additional state and local taxes. If you are entitled to an additional state and local sales tax deduction, please provide us with a signed statement showing the amount of the additional deduction that you are entitled to claim.

Health savings account distribution

The Health Savings Account distribution reported on your return does not agree with the information provided to us on Form(s) 1099-SA, Distributions From an HSA, Archer MSA, or Medicare Advantage MSA.

Form W-2 or 1099 not received

The law requires you to report your income correctly. If your payers did not send you a yearly income statement (Form W-2, Form 1099, etc.), you must use the information you have (pay stubs, monthly income statements, deposit slips, etc.) to estimate the total amount of income you received during the year.

Misidentified income

If any of the income shown on this notice is not yours, send us the name, address, and social security number of the person who received the income. Please notify the payers to correct their records to show the name and social security number of the person who actually received the income, so that future reports to us are accurate.
